

The Book of JAMES

and why it matters...

STUDY GUIDE

SESSION 7: James 3:13-18

Study Guide by Francis Chan

DISCUSS

- Verse 13 starts off with a question, so let's answer it. Who is the wisest person you know, or have known? Why do you say that? How did they show their wisdom?
- We started off today by talking about our best subjects in school. Were these wise people in your life also the smartest people you've known? Or is wisdom something different from intelligence?
- What do verses 13-15 tell us about what wisdom is and isn't?
- Verse 13 talks about a "good conduct"? How would you define that? What kind of "good conduct" does a wise person exhibit?
- Why is meekness part of true wisdom?
- Have you known people who thought they were wise but really weren't? Were they meek? Did they show humility?
- In these passages, what is the relationship between wisdom and boasting?
- In James 3:16-17 we see descriptions of the "fruits" of true wisdom and false wisdom. What's the difference? How can we tell them apart?
- What does it mean for wisdom to be "pure"?

- How can wisdom be “open to reason”?
- What do you think verse 18 means?
- What can you do to promote peace that yields “a harvest of righteousness”?

LIVE IT OUT

The book of James emphasizes the active side of our faith, so let's consider several ways we might put its teaching into practice.

Prayer: James 1:5 invites us to ask God for wisdom. Consider praying, “God, I’ve been pursuing success, I’ve been pursuing riches, I’ve been pursuing knowledge but I see in Scripture now wisdom is what you value and it should be what I value...Give me the wisdom I need to navigate through this life in a way that honors you.”

Memorization: Learn the Beatitudes from Matthew 5:3-10. Or at least create some mnemonic way to remember the eight qualities that Jesus describes there.

Study: Do a computer (or concordance) word search through the Bible for “wisdom” and/or “wise.” Pick ten verses from different books (not all from Proverbs!) and study them.

Honor: Do something to honor a person whose wisdom you have been blessed by. If the person is still living, thank them by telling them what they have taught you. If they have passed, then thank God for them, and find some way to commemorate their effect on your life.

Evaluation: Do this with a kind, humble heart. Name the 5 to 8 opinion leaders in your life—people in church, school, work, the media, etc.—whose ideas you regularly pay attention to. Based on the teaching in James 3:13-18, do you feel these people are speaking God’s wisdom into your life? This is not an invitation to pride, criticism, or a divisive spirit on your part—just a way to check your regular input with the descriptions of heavenly wisdom we learned today.
